

Halton Black History Awareness Society

www.hbhas.ca
Burlington Ontario

“Community, Roots & Culture”

Halton Freedom Celebration Festival Vendors

This is your opportunity to participate as a vendor in the Halton Freedom Celebration Festival, taking place at Spencer Smith Park in Burlington, Ontario. Saturday August 1st long weekend

It is the vision of the Halton Black History Awareness Society (HBHAS) to celebrate Halton's diverse cultures through Cultural Education, Cultural Enhancement and Cultural Entertainment towards Halton's recognition of being a Culture Capital of Canada. The HBHAS welcomes food, community, commodity, and cultural vendors to participate within this growing Halton Freedom Festival.

The venue includes exquisite music and dance acts, youth and children's events, artistic/musical and historical forums, and an extensive marketplace of cultural cuisine and memorabilia, historical and community literature and exceptional multi-culture ambiance.

Burlington, Ontario has been recognized as being the first city in the world to declare August as Emancipation Month celebrating inclusivity and community integration. Freedom Festival 2018

Admission Free Festival - Open to the public.

HBHAS invites you to take the journey with us! See what a difference this multi-cultural experience can make in progressing the next generation.

Interested parties, please contact:

HBHAS2015@gmail.com

Be a Part of Progressive Change in Canadian History

